

Profile of Bank Negara Malaysia's Assistant Governor Fraziali Ismail

Mr. Fraziali Ismail was appointed as Bank Negara Malaysia's Assistant Governor, responsible for financial sector regulation and strategic communications. He oversees areas of financial surveillance, prudential regulations, consumer and market conduct as well as money services business regulations. He also assumes responsibility for EMEAP Working Group on Banking Supervision (WGBS) matters at Bank Negara Malaysia.

A career central banker, Mr. Fraziali joined Bank Negara Malaysia in 1994 and has served as the Director of the Economics and Monetary Policy departments. He has sat in several Government policy and development committees, where he played a key role in advising the Malaysian Government on the design and formulation of high impact public policies. Mr. Fraziali has also written extensively for Bank Negara Malaysia and oversaw the publication of working and research papers on areas of monetary policy and the Malaysian economy.

Mr. Fraziali holds a Master's degree in Economics from the London School of Economics and Political Science and a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Accounting from the University of Bristol, United Kingdom.